Dear <<First Name>>,

I am excited to announce the launch of Collector Revolution, a new online marketplace for sports cards and memorabilia! Learn below how Collector Revolution solves the major problems sellers (like us) hate about other websites.

Earn More

At Collector Revolution, sellers pay no listing fees, no membership fees, and no relisting fees.

Review the chart to see how we compare. In addition to these fees, other online marketplaces may also charge processing fees, cash-out fees, or membership fees ranging from $15.95 to $499.00 per month!

Fees shouldn't stop businesses from making the most of their sales. Save more and earn more with Collector Revolution.

List Items Faster and Lose the Headaches

The time it takes just to list one item can make selling online unprofitable for your business. Collector Revolution fixes this problem. The website's Bulk Image Uploader lets you upload an entire folder of images, and the CR QuickList feature helps you create multiple listings at one time.

Collector Revolution rethinks every part of the selling process. We offer a two-way feedback system that protects the seller's reputation and a Collection Matchmaker that generates sales leads for you.

There's also no "holding period" for receiving payments; no requirement to use PayPal; and no telling you how much you can charge for shipping. To earn even more, get a month with no final sales fees just by referring 10 qualified buyers to our website.

It's time for a change. Start selling now at www.CollectorRevolution.com .

Sincerely,
